Mabel Shelloff

Mabel Shelloff, aged 71 years, of Grand Forks, BC, passed away peacefully July 13th, 2012 at home. Mabel was born February 23rd, 1941 in Brilliant B.C, the daughter of Lawrence and Mable Makeyff. Mabel grew up and received her schooling in Grand Forks, B.C. On October 11th, 1958 Mabel was united in marriage to Nick Shelloff in Grand Forks.

Mabel was a kind and good person. Mabel was a person who prided herself by her work and by always keeping busy. Growing flowers was a true passion of Mabel's. Flowers adorned her window sills, living room, sidewalk, front and back yards. Mabel loved to garden and when you looked for her in summertime you could be assured a water hose was running and her flowers were being cared for.

Mabel loved her husband, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and we all love her. We will never forget Mabel as a wife, mother, and grandmother. We will deeply miss mom. Mabel is forever in our memories.

Mabel was predeceased by her parents and two brothers, Michael and Larry.

Mabel is survived by her husband Nick, two sons, Phillip and Jack (Fran), her grandchildren, Shannon (Brent), Samantha (Tyler), Josie, and Alan, and great grandchildren, Jayden, Benjamin, and Colby.

The Shelloff family would like to thank the ambulance attendants, Jerry Seminoff for officiating and Everett Baker and staff of Grand Forks Funeral Home for arrangements, guidance and help. Prayer services were held on July 17th, 2012 at Grand Forks Funeral Home with interment at the USCC Sion Doukhobor Cemetery at Grand Forks, British Columbia. Thank you to all who attended Mabel's Celebration of Life. Funeral Arrangements were entrusted to Everett Baker of Grand Forks Funeral Home.
